

&

You Can't Rewind Childhood

Studies show that after the first 2000 days, your child's brain is already 90% developed.

So stop, unplug and push play — whether that's talking, laughing, reading or anything you want to do together. It's the only way to teach your child the social and cognitive skills she will need for the rest of her life.

▶ StopAndPlay.org

COORDINATING BOARD FOR
EARLY CHILDHOOD

